

Complaints and Appeals Handling Procedure

1. Purpose and Scope:

This procedure aims to describe the steps adopted by RACS Quality for:

- Complaints Handling.
- Handling of appeal against a certification decision.

This Standard Operating Procedure applies to all parties that are involved in the complaints, appeals procedure, including the concerned RACS customer, RACS Quality Unit, the concerned staff members of the Operations Department and the Appeals Committee members.

All RACS clients have the right to make a complaint, appeal against any certification decision if they can bring forward good arguments. This standard operating procedure outlines the principles and responsibilities with regards to complaints, appeals.

2. Responsibilities:

It's the responsibility of Chief Executive Officer, General Manager, Quality Assurance Manager and Technical Manager, to ensure the proper setting, implementation and communication of this document.

3. Definitions:

Complaint: a "Complaint" means expression of dissatisfaction by individual(s) or organization(s) against RACS certification services before the certification decision issued .

Certification Decision: A decision taken by designated staff to grant or deny initial certification, confirm certification after surveillance audit, renew certification, extend a certificate, suspend a certificate, lift the suspension or to decertify. A Certification Decision becomes effective with immediate effect.

Appeal: A request to review and reverse a Certification Decision. Appeals against Certification Decisions are decided on by the Appeal/Review Committee

Appeal Committee: The Appeal Committee is an internal quality control body that objectively supervises the decision-making process within RACS considering any raised argument and objection by the involved parties. Thus, it ensures that operations are exercised with due diligence and uniformity in interpreting the Standards. As a company-internal body its role is not that of an external and/or official arbitration body nor a court-like institution Process.

Complaints and Appeals Handling Procedure

- If no Complaint/Appeal is received within 30 days the decision becomes final and may not be appealed against, and the complaint become declined.
- RACS will not respond to anonymous requests/forms without clear contact information.
- After receipt of the request, RACS shall investigate whether it relates to the certification activities and scopes for which RACS is responsible and decide the acceptance of it.
- Where the request is identified and accepted to be investigated, RACS shall acknowledge the same to the complainant/appellant or the concerned person submitted the request.
- In case where the request is not accepted, RACS shall give notice to the complainant of it with the reason(s), and guidance on how to proceed further with this request.
- In order to file either a complaint or appeal to RACS, the affected customer/organization has to submit a completed form (RACS /REC/17 RACS Complaints FORM & RACS/REC/18 Appeals Form) to the Quality Assurance Manager at RACS via email to info@racs.ae; the form can either be downloaded from RACS's website (www.racs-me.com), or to be requested through the above email or immediately handed by RACS QAM.
- If request is received by any staff member, he will be forwarded to the Quality Assurance Manager for his review and action, and then related records will be updated by QAM.
- QAM who will conduct an initial evaluation of the request and decide if the submission is accepted or denied within 7 working days, based on whether the request contains a valid reason to file the complaint /appeal .
- Once receiving a form, the QAM will assure on whether the request contains an actionable Review or Appeal (either against a Certification decision) or if the request should be dealt with as complaint.
- An Appeal does not alter the effectiveness of the Certification decision, unless the Appeal has been granted by the Complaint/Appeal Committee in its final decision. All restrictions applicable to a customer as a consequence of a Certification Decision of suspension remain in effect during the period of suspension.
- The QAM maintains a log of all Complaints, Appeals and informs the Appeal Committee in order to move the process forward.

4.1.2 Reasons of Complaint/Appeal : All requests must state the reason(s) for complaints in the Complaints form (RACS/REC/17), and appeals/review requests in the appeal/review handling form (RACS/REC/18) and need to be supported by information and evidence.

IMPROTANT: Please note that a Complaint, Appeal will only be accepted if it is accompanied by or based on clear and credible information in accordance with below reasons.

In case request does not contain a convincing reason, QAM will contact the concerned appellent for more clarification on convincing reason for complaining or appealing.
